ST. JOHN EVANGELIST CEMETERY
ST. JOHN, INDIANA

This is an index of the deaths and burials from St. John Ev. church. The church is located on the southwest corner of 93rd St. and route 41 in St. John, Indiana. The church cemetery is on the south side of the church. The records were obtained from (1)the church registers (6 volumes), (2) reading the stones in the cemetery, and (3) a cemetery survey made by the DAR in 1958. It is currently impossible to locate all the graves as some of the stones (if there were any) are long gone. Either broken, vandalized or simply removed for safety purposes.

This is the first time that a map of the cemetery has been drawn. In researching the records there was no record whatsoever of how the cemetery was platted and where the graves were located. In talking to people who have relatives buried here I was able to determine how the grave sites were numbered. Looking at the map you will see that the cemetery is laid out in 3 sections. Each section in turn is divided into a north and south section. At one time there was a road into the cemetery from Route 41. The pioneer log church sits at the entrance. This road separates the north and south sections.

The headings on the list are almost all self-explanatory. The only column that needs explaining is the VOL-PAGE-#. Each name that has an entry in this column can be found in the church register. The VOL is the volume number (there are 6 volumes). The PAGE is the page number of that volume (under the LIBER DEFUNCTORUM section of the register). The # is the entry number on that page. Example=II-186-3 would be volume 2, page 186,entry 3.

The REMARKS-LOCATION column is the place of burial. In a few cases there is a remark about the deceased. Anyone with a SEC XX R X GR XX is buried in the St. John Ev. cemetery. Anyone else is either buried in another cemetery or their burial place is unknown. Although if there is an entry in the church register (VOL-PAGE-#) for them they are probably buried in the St. John Ev. cemetery but there is no grave marker.

The first part of the book is an alphabetic listing by last name. The second part is a listing by grave location in the St. John Ev. cemetery starting with Section 1N and ending with Section 4S. Every effort was made to check and recheck this information but there are bound to be some omissions and/or errors. If notified about them I will try to make the proper corrections.
